Parent/ Tot Assisted Class Warnings

I understand that the “Parent/Tot” class at Paragon gymnastics requires that my toddler must be supervised and assisted through the entire length of the class by myself or by the person I have appointed in my place. The assistance may include lifting, bending, stretching, reaching, running, and many other movements in order to supervise and assist the toddler. The toddler may be assisted by myself, or a person that I have appointed in my place. The person who is assisting the student is solely responsible for the student while on the premises. I agree to become familiar with and follow, all instructions, policies and regulations with regards to spotting the student, supervising the student, will exercise proper use of the facility and equipment, follow the progressions of the lesson plans and obey the safety directives which may be verbal, written or posted.

I also agree to ensure that if I have appointed a person in my place, they shall become familiar with and agree to follow all instructions, policies and regulations with regards to spotting, supervising the student, exercising proper use of the facility and equipment, and will follow the progressions of the lesson plans and obey the safety directives which may be verbal, written or posted.

I further understand that I, or an appointed person in my place, and the student may encounter surfaces that are uneven, may vary from soft to firm and I, or an appointed person in my place, and the student will encounter a variety of equipment. I have read and I understand and have signed and dated the release waiver, which shall serve as a warning in regards to the student, myself and anyone who I appoint to participate in the Parent/Tot class.
